

SAN FRANCISCO.

Tuesday, February 26, 1850.

News for the States.

AN EDITION OF

The Pacific News for the Steamer.

Will be read.

early on Thursday the 28th inst., which will contain the latest intelligence from the Mines, and a large amount of interesting matter relating to the rapid and extraordinary advance of the Empire State of the Pacific in the career of commercial prosperity and greatness. For the information of friends in the States, on all subjects of interest respecting California, this is not only the best, but by far the cheapest method for the transmission of news. Heretofore we have not been able to supply the demand for papers to send home, but we shall on this occasion issue an extra edition. It will be necessary to call early, in order to prevent disappointment.

Telo on the Governor-Sale of Town Lots.

The Town Treasury Bankrupt.

The Ayuntamiento, or Town Council, held an extra session last evening, at which several important matters were discussed, and definitely settled so far as that body had power in the premises. It is clear that an issue has been made with the higher authorities as to jurisdiction over the public lands of the city, which promises to attract much attention on the part of the people.

It appears that the Attorney of the Council, to whom had been referred the mandate of Gov. Burnett, gave an opinion adverse to the powers of that functionary to interfere with the action of the Ayuntamiento, which report was accepted, and its conclusions adopted. By several votes bearing upon the question, (we left before final action was taken,) it appeared to be determined that the sale of lots, advertised to be made at auction on the 4th of March, should take place, notwithstanding the order of the Governor to the contrary. It was even proposed by the minority of the Committee on Finance, to include in said sale all lots which had been surveyed, and not otherwise legally disposed of. A pretty wide latitude of action truly, and equivalent to passing upon the whole question of the legality of Alcaide and Justices' grants, and saving the courts and lawyers much intricate business that might possibly have come before them.

A communication was received from the Prefect, the reading of which we did not hear, but which we understood to make a "loud call" upon the Council, to comply speedily with the previous resolutions, upon them for "sale" of the municipal stewardship entrusted to them by the laws.

By the report of Mr. Brannan, Chairman of the Finance Committee, and the statements made by members in debate, it appears that not only is there not a dollar in the Town Treasury, but that there is due to public creditors, many of them laboring men upon the streets and wharves, a sum exceeding thirty thousand dollars. This disclosure will certainly be a startling one to the public, and the cases which have led to it should be promptly forthcoming. Mr. B.'s report urged retrenchment in every department of the public expenditure, and he spoke earnestly in support of his position. The minority report advocated the sale of lots as the best panacea for a collapsed Treasury—and the question to lay the majority report of the Finance Committee on the table being decided in the affirmative, Mr. Brannan announced his determination to resign his seat in the Council before the close of the evening's session.

No report from either the Treasurer or Auditor of the city had been made to the Council, of the receipts and disbursements, and the remarks of members had a tendency to leave on the minds of "outsiders" rather unpleasant inferences, in view of this fact, doubtless not intended to reflect injuriously upon those officers.

We have not time, owing to the lateness of the hour, to give an abstract of the other proceedings of the Council; but we certainly are constrained to say, that such a head-over-heels way of transacting public business was exhibited last evening, we never before witnessed in a deliberative body. We can conceive of many greater calamities than would be a change in the composition of the Ayuntamiento of San Francisco.

TRACT SOCIETY MEETING.—The meeting on last Sunday evening, at the Baptist chapel, for the formation of the Pacific Tract Society, auxiliary to the American Tract Society, was entirely successful. The house was crowded. Col. James Collier was called to preside, and Thomas J. Nevins appointed secretary. A constitution was presented and adopted, and officers chosen in accordance with its provisions. Rev. Mr. Wheeler of this city was chosen President, and T. J. Nevins, corresponding secretary. Several vice-presidents were appointed as well as a board of directors, executive committee, etc. During the evening letters were read from gentlemen of the neighboring towns, expressing a lively interest in the success of the undertaking. Resolutions were also presented, and stirring addresses made, in behalf of the important objects sought to be accomplished.

Homeward Bound.

With our package of letters from "home, sweet home," we also received one from our late associate, James B. Devor, Esq., who left on the Panama on the 1st inst., on a business visit to New York. Though not intended for publication, we have determined to "take the responsibility" of making an extract or two, which we doubt not will be gratifying to the readers of the News. The letter is dated "On board steamship Panama, Gulf of California, Feb. 22, 1850."

"As you are no doubt aware, we got to sea just about dark on the 1st, and having made all baggage fast in most approved style, I prepared myself for a 'good time' of sea sickness. The steamer, hunched about in a delightful manner, and at last began to entertain 'hopes.' But 'twas no use, the only effect produced was that of an appetite with which I was so afflicted by Cape Horn. No sea-sickness, however strongly invoked, would come to my aid, and I was compelled, after smoking several cigars with the hopes of exciting nausea, to retire comfortably to bed, and 'sleep as sound as a roach.' It was a sad disappointment in not being sea-sick, but I managed to console myself with the reflection that Cape Horn has so case-hardened my 'inwards,' that I can with some degree of propriety aspire to the title of 'old salt.'"

"We reached Monterey on the morning of the 2d inst., about nine o'clock. I must confess that I was somewhat disappointed in the appearance of the city. Although it lies folded in the arms of a beautiful little bay, and is surrounded by a region of country finely timbered nearly down to the water's edge, with a background of highlands much resembling the romantic scenery of the Hudson; yet I did not perceive any of those evanescent or energetic industry ever attendant upon the improvements of Yankee enterprise. I should think that the number of buildings did not exceed two hundred, erected in a plain, substantial manner—nearly all, I am told, within the last six months. From what I could judge of the country from the steamer's decks—for I did not land, as she remained only half an hour—I should judge it to be an excellent grazing country, but comparatively worthless for agricultural purposes. Leaving Monterey, we drove along two days through a region of fog, and arrived at San Diego at ten o'clock. A. M. on the 4th. The entrance to the harbor is around a neck of land that stretches away out into the ocean—but which, when passed, introduces you through a narrow strait of bold water formed by a bar of sand and rocks, on either shore, and extending like a pair of arms in protection of the inner harbor—leaving a channel scarcely a quarter of a mile in width for vessels to pass. Inside these 'bars' the bay flares out like a huge basin, on the left, immediately before you, being seen the new town, composed of only eight coarse looking buildings, while on the right, some miles further up the bay, flashes the spires of the old town of San Diego, in guardianship of the Spanish-looking villas that extend some distance along the shore.

"Yesterday we passed the Marguerita Islands, the principal characteristic of which is their cone-shaped mountains piercing the sky, and evidently of volcanic origin. One of them is a tolerably well defined outline of a female form in a horizontal position, as seen from a distance. The profile was sunk below the horizon; but the bust, surmounted by the two immense mountain cones, gave an excellent representation of the 'line of beauty' in the swelling and graceful outline. . . . In the afternoon we passed Point Todos Santos, and this morning Cape St. Lucas—both of which were seen at too great a distance to take observations.

"Every thing has gone well with us since we left the golden shores—our tables are good, the Captain gentlemanly and courteous, and we indulge in the pleasing expectation of a pleasant and speedy passage to the U. S."

"We have received a communication from Mr. Wm. H. Graham, whose voucher for ten dollars, for a list of passengers, by the Oregon, was published in our last issue, in which he explains the transaction, and justifies himself from the censure which he supposes to have been implied in our article. We certainly intended no blame to Mr. Graham, who is a worthy and estimable young man; for if he has the good fortune to obtain, exclusively, any portion of the records or papers, from the public offices of the government, or elsewhere, it is certainly on his part, a fair business transaction. But we are curious to know by what private arrangement, if any, information of this kind is given out for individual benefit; and whether other parties are interested in 'the spoils.' It is not unlikely there may be a 'kink' to this business, which may require to be unravelled.

"The Astor Place Riot Trials were progressing in New York at the latest date. Those arranged are the celebrated Captain Josiah Rynders, John S. Austin, William Miner, Thomas O'Donnell and John Walker, jointly, on the charge of inducing a riot. &c. Robert Long, tried for arson, in the first degree, in attempting to set fire to the Opera House on the night of the riot, was found guilty.

"We would call the attention of persons sending drafts to New Bedford, Nantucket, and the vicinity, to the advertisement of Adams & Co., by which they will observe that the drafts of Adams & Co. will be cashed at the counter of New Bedford.

Contemplated Resignation of Judge Almond—Recommendation of his Successor.

We are gratified in being made the medium of laying before the public the proceedings of a meeting of the legal gentlemen of San Francisco, which contain resolutions so complimentary to Judge Almond, and which his firm and upright character as a judicial officer and gentleman, renders him so eminently worthy to receive. It is with regret that we are apprised of the contemplated condition of health which compels the Judge to resign his office, and decline a higher appointment from the Legislature.

"At a meeting of the Members of the Bar of San Francisco, held pursuant to public notice, at the Court Room, February 22, 1850, Gen. P. A. Morse was called to the Chair, and John Satterlee appointed Secretary.

Mr. McCallister, Esq., presented a letter from Judge Almond, of which the following is a copy.

Court Room, San Francisco, Feb. 20, 1850. Gentlemen: Last week I addressed a letter to Governor Burnett asking leave to resign the office of Judge of First Instance, in Civil Cases, for this District, in consequence of the rapidly declining state of my health, under the arduous and unceasing labors and responsibilities of the office, and requesting my friends not to present my name to the Legislature for the office of District Judge of this District, for the reason that I could not accept of said office if tendered to me on account of the declining condition of my health. Yesterday, I received an answer from the Governor stating that he cannot consent to accept my resignation till the Legislature shall elect my successor in the person of a District Judge for this District.

I, therefore, communicate the above facts to that Bar who have so generously and unanimously recommended me to the Legislature for the office of District Judge, and who have so generously sustained me in the discharge of the duties of my office; so that they may recommend some other person to fill said office of District Judge.

I am, respectfully, Your obedient servant, B. ALMOND, Judge of First Instance.

To the members of the Bar of San Francisco: Mr. Dwinelle moved that the letter of Judge Almond be referred to a committee of five, to report resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the members of the Bar, upon the anticipated parting with Judge Almond. Adopted.

Messrs. Dwinelle, McCallister, Billings, Morrison and Townsend, were appointed the committee.

The committee reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously concurred in: Resolved, That in parting with Judge Wm. B. Almond, Judge of First Instance in this District, we cannot hesitate to bear witness to the labors industry and zeal with which he has devoted himself to the business of the Court, and to the administration of justice; an industry and zeal which has declined health and shattered constitution bear painful testimony.

Resolved, That in parting with him, the Bar and community of San Francisco sustain a serious loss—the loss of a man who, in the discharge of the duties of his office, has manifested an integrity, firmness, and an ability rarely to be met with.

Resolved, That Judge Almond, whether he remains with us or returns to his family, will bear with him our cordial wishes for his prosperity, for his speedy restoration to health, and for his happiness here and hereafter.

On motion of Mr. McCallister, the meeting then proceeded to select, by ballot, a suitable person to be recommended to the Legislature for the office of District Judge for the District of San Francisco. Alexander Campbell, Esq., having received a large majority of the votes, it was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That the members of the Bar of San Francisco recommend to the Legislature, Alexander Campbell, Esq., for the office of District Judge.

P. A. MORSE, Chairman. JOHN SATTERLEE, Secretary.

News from Europe.—The mail Steamer Canada, from Liverpool, arrived at Halifax on the 13th January, from which place her news was telegraphed to the different cities in time for the next morning's papers. She left Liverpool 29th December.

Cotton had risen half a cent per lb. money abundant, and American stock firm.

A rebellion had broken out in Serbia and the military provinces on the Turkish frontier, of a very formidable nature. It is said that several of the best Austrian regiments had joined the insurgents, who numbered 120,000 men and 100 cannon.

It is reported at Paris that the government of the United States had settled the Tobacco claim of M. Pore, which made such a rumour between Mr. Clayton and M. Poussin.

The difficulty between Russia and Turkey, in reference to the refusal of the latter to deliver up the Hungarian refugees, still remained unsettled.

In France, the democratic party is strengthening itself in all the local elections, and the people are rapidly becoming firmly attached to Republican Institutions.

The Sandwich Island princes have arrived in England, and the Hawaiian ambassador has reached France.

At a meeting of the members of the Bar of San Francisco, held pursuant to public notice, at the Court Room, February 22, 1850, Gen. P. A. Morse was called to the Chair, and John Satterlee appointed Secretary.

Anniversary Celebration of Washington's Birth-day by the First California Guard.

The most recherche and magnificent fete of the season, was given on Friday evening last, the 22d inst., in honor of the Birth-day of the great and good Washington,—the beloved "Father of his Country,"—by the First California Guard, at their Armory, corner of Dupont and Jackson streets. The Armory, which is one of the largest rooms in the city, was tastefully decorated, and handsomely lighted up, and we noticed the company present was composed of the dile of California, in wealth and standing, and several of the officers of the Navy and Army.—Forming altogether a festive gathering such as we have never seen surpassed in any of the older States.

The "Guard" has been organized but a few months; but it is formed of our most spirited and patriotic fellow-citizens, as is evinced by their having erected the building in which their armory is located, at an expense exceeding $30,000, which is owned entirely by themselves; and by giving a Festival conceived and executed on a scale of liberality and splendor that will long remain green in the memories of those who had the good fortune to be present.

The covers were laid for nine o'clock, at which time, the guests being all assembled, the Chair was taken by Myron C. Norton, Esq., as President, assisted by Lieutenants Hall McCallister and David T. Bagley, as Vice Presidents.

The "Guards" and their guests, then sat down to an elegant supper, enlivened by music, from the "California Brass Band," under Capt. Miller, and by toast, speech and sentiment—the festivities not terminating till the "vee sma' hours" of the morning. For the curiosity of our readers, we give the Bill of Fare, which was served up by the caterer, Edward Weber, Esq., in the first style of les art cuisine.

FIRST CALIFORNIA GUARD FESTIVAL.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTH-DAY, 22d February, 1850.

BILL OF FARE:

Huies de sanglier.
Cochons de lait farcis.
Gigot a la Breigout.
Gigot a la Roti, Fricadeau.
Cotelettes de Veau en Lorgnette.
Jambon glace.
Filet de Chevreuil pique.
Gigot de Chevreuil Roti.
Chateaux de Beuf.
Canetons en Chausson.
Beignettes Roties.
Galette d'Oie.
Pate froide au croûte.
Pate de helle vue.
Macaronade de Volaille.
Salade Pomme de Terres aux Oufs.
Salade verte garnie.
Vol-au-vent d'huile.
Poisson.
Salandier de creme a la Vanille.
Blanc Manger.
Charlotte Russe.
Trois grand Pieces Montee.
Un grand et fin assortiment de Dessert et de Delicatesses.

After the removal of the cloth, the following Regular Toasts were drunk,—that to "the Press" calling up our talented and eloquent conferees of the "Alta," J. E. Durivage, Esq., in a neat and modest speech. Col. Hooker, of the Army, and Lieutenant Duer, of the Navy, also made handsome responses—the latter remarking of the pleasure it gave him to recognize so many of the "New York City" and "Brady Guards" present, and concluding with a toast, "To the Ladies of California," who had exhibited their heroism in suffering the long and dangerous passage around Cape Horn, encountering the furies of the Isthmus, and boldly facing the red men of the prairies. We regret the want of room to give full particulars of the evening's enjoyment:

1. The Day we Celebrate.—Sacred to the heart of every American. [Cheers.]
2. The Memory of Washington. [Drank in silence, standing.]
3. The President of the United States. [Cheers.]

4. Our Army and Navy.—The records of their gallant deeds form one of the most brilliant pages of history. [Cheers.]- 5. The Volunteer Corps of our Sister States.—We greet them in the true soldierly spirit, and ask room in their ranks for the First California Guard. [Cheers.]
- 6. The Press.—May it ever be a "Journal" of "Pacific News" from "Alta California."

7. West Point Military Academy.—A creation of the immortal Washington, its brilliant career has been not unworthy its illustrious origin. [Cheers.]- 8. The Battle of Buena Vista.—22d of February, 1847.—A glorious celebration of the anniversary. [Cheers.]
- 9. Women.—Our arms are always at her disposal. [Cheers.]

The regular toasts having been drunk, volunteers were called for, and many excellent sentiments given, a few of which only are we able to find room for.

By Benj. Reynolds, Esq.—The Golden Planet of the World—California: May her secret treasures be handled by all mankind, and her virtue still remain untarnished.

By Col. James Collier, Collector of the Port.—The Port of San Francisco: Unrivalled in its beauty of scenery—unsurpassed in its facility for commerce—unexcelled for the liberality of its merchants.

By W. W. Leland, Esq.—The New Star of the California Guard: May it be first in aglorious constellation, and may it never set.

The following communications were read by the President, from distinguished citizens, who were unable to be present at the Festival:

BENICIA, February 18, 1850. Messrs. Fred. A. Woodworth, A. J. McDuffie, Walter Cleeman, Alex. S. Abel and Aaron Pollard, Committee of the "First California Guard," San Francisco.

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your invitation to the Armory of the "First California Guard," on the evening of Washington's Birth-day.

I cannot be in San Francisco on that day, and regret that I must therefore decline the invitation.

I feel a warm interest in all associations for so honorable and patriotic a purpose as yours, and beg to assure you that I shall be ready on all occasions to evince it.

With earnest wishes for the success and prosperity of your corps and its members, I remain your obedient servant, PERSIFOR F. SMITH, Lt. Maj. Gen. U. S. A.

SAN JOSE, Feb. 15, 1850. Gentlemen of the Committee: Your polite note of invitation was received by me in due time; and I regret to say that I cannot do myself the pleasure of meeting with you on the Birth-day of our great Washington. That good man lived in extraordinary times—so do we. If we should only adorn our characters with the virtues that he exhibited, we shall be most happy.

I have the honor to be, Your obedient servant, PETER H. BURNETT, To Messrs. Fred. A. Woodworth, A. J. McDuffie, and others, Committee.

Capt. Folson presents his compliments to the Committee, and regrets that ill health will make it imprudent to accept their polite invitation for this evening. San Francisco, 22d Feb. 1850.

MY DEAR SIR: I regret that illness prevents my attending the meeting of the Guards this evening, but beg to offer the following sentiments.

The California Guards: May the spirit of Washington be with them in the hour of need and animate them on to glory. Yours, most truly, H. D. M. HOWARD.

To Lt. Myron C. Norton To F. A. Woodworth, Esq., and others of the Committee.

GENTLEMEN: I sincerely regret that after the cloth was removed, the feast of reason and the flow of soul, commenced, and with song and sentiment, flashed as brilliantly as did the sparkling champagne around the table.

Rushed, chasing countless thoughts along. Amid the abundance of good cheer, happiness seemed to be depicted on the countenances of all. "Dull care" was driven away, and every thing around us reminded us so forcibly of "home, sweet home," that we too—lost our wives, and sweethearts, till all were ready to exclaim, with the poet, "Give us music and . . . mirth, and laughter, Sermons and soda, the next day after."

We all grew mightily independent, snapped our fingers at Uncle Sam and his custom houses, and branch mints, and said (it was only a festive treason), Mr. Editor, and I hope Uncle Sam will not consider it high treason, "a fig for them all, we have a Mint-urn of our own in California." Upwards of one hundred guests sat down to the table, among them were representatives of the press, bench, bar and the Legislature, and after spending some two or three hours around the festive board, and passing an unanimous resolution against the removal of the capitol, so long as we had such a capital place of resort as Minerva's, the company dispersed at an early hour, with the best wishes for the prosperity of the Mansion House, and its gentlemanly proprietor.

Yesterday, the day was celebrated in an appropriate manner, by the reading of Washington's Farewell Address, by H. Robinson, Esq., and an address by Hon. W. Van Voorhis. The address is said, by those who listened to it, to have been a very handsome, eloquent, and appropriate production, but I was my misfortune to be absent, owing to a misapprehension of the time when the exercises were to commence in the Assembly chamber. A fine liberty pole was erected the day previous, directly in front of the capitol, and from its top, at an early hour, floated the star-spangled banner of the Union. The star-spangled banner, oh! long may it wave. Over the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

The exercises of the 22d inst. were closed by a splendid ball in the evening at the Assembly Hall, which was numerously attended. Yours, etc., SPECTATOR.

LOCAL MATTERS.

NATIONAL THEATRE.—Washington St. The performances at this theatre please us much. There is a truthfulness to nature about the acting of French people, and a fidelity to all the etiquette of the stage, which is in the highest degree agreeable. There are lessons of politeness to be learned from them, which might be advantageously applied in the drawing room. Every one must be pleased with the gentility of Mr. Pratt, and the good humor and natural manner of Delamare, the quaint grace of Madame Juliet, and the versatility and pleasant voice of Nitzel. Indeed, the accuracy and care of all, add to the sort of professional admiration, which renders French artists so pleasant, and make the National an agreeable place of resort. We understand that an English company will soon appear in a series of popular comedies, under the judicious management of Mr. Evard, from whose ability to cater for an American audience, we look for something excellent in this department.

MAP OF SAN FRANCISCO.—We have received from Wm. M. Eddy, Esq., City Engineer and Surveyor, a very beautiful and accurate map of this city, from his official surveys, made during the past year. It is invaluable to the counting room of every merchant or business man, and we hope Mr. Eddy will be adequately recompensed for this evidence of his public spirit. He will please accept our thanks.

POLICE.—The nine o'clock visitors to the Alcaide's court, pay very little attention to the adage "water your wine in moderation," as the following cases show: Philip Ares being drunk and disorderly, was fined $10. John Geniston thought he had a right to laugh and talk at the Olympic, as he grossly false, and basely malicious. I undertake to say there never has been a solitary fight, or anything like a riot, or even harsh feeling at any of the meetings. All parties came forward with a feeling of quiet acquiescence with the fairly expressed opinions of the majority. A more quiet, peaceable and orderly community I have never seen in any Western State. I remain yours, respectfully, F. M. MASON.

Correspondence Pacific News.

SAN JOSE, Feb. 23. "PACIFIC NEWS."—Dear Sir: Please say to your friends, and through your columns, to all whom it may concern, through the length and breadth of California, that strangers and visitors have no longer any complaint that there is any lack of creature comforts existing in San Jose. Our friend, and host of the Mansion House, a hotel just opened here, and which would not discredit similar establishments in the States. Lloyd Minut, Esq., gave notice to his numerous friends, that on Tuesday evening last he would be "at home," and accordingly upon said Tuesday, filled with those who came to bear witness to the qualities of the house, and its excellent proprietor.

Previous to the dinner, in company with the reporter of the "Alta," I took a stroll through the rooms, and found every thing most admirably arranged for the convenience and comfort of guests. There are now some sixty sleeping apartments, to which will be added shortly, some forty or fifty more, besides an elegant ladies' parlor above and below stairs, all neatly and elegantly furnished with excellent furniture.

The bar-room is the "ne plus ultra" of all hotels in California, and is fitted up in a neat style, and tastefully ornamented, in every respect. We have scarce finished our tour through the rooms, when the guests were summoned to the dining-room, where we sat down to a magnificent banquet of all the good things that abound in our fair land, in "mine host's" best style. The dining saloon is ample enough to accommodate 100 persons at the centre table, exclusive of a side-table capable of seating some fifty more. Gen. Green, the Senator, presided, and after the cloth was removed, the feast of reason and the flow of soul, commenced, and with song and sentiment, flashed as brilliantly as did the sparkling champagne around the table.

"Till thoughts on countless thoughts along." Amid the abundance of good cheer, happiness seemed to be depicted on the countenances of all. "Dull care" was driven away, and every thing around us reminded us so forcibly of "home, sweet home," that we too—lost our wives, and sweethearts, till all were ready to exclaim, with the poet, "Give us music and . . . mirth, and laughter, Sermons and soda, the next day after."

We all grew mightily independent, snapped our fingers at Uncle Sam and his custom houses, and branch mints, and said (it was only a festive treason), Mr. Editor, and I hope Uncle Sam will not consider it high treason, "a fig for them all, we have a Mint-urn of our own in California." Upwards of one hundred guests sat down to the table, among them were representatives of the press, bench, bar and the Legislature, and after spending some two or three hours around the festive board, and passing an unanimous resolution against the removal of the capitol, so long as we had such a capital place of resort as Minerva's, the company dispersed at an early hour, with the best wishes for the prosperity of the Mansion House, and its gentlemanly proprietor.

Yesterday, the day was celebrated in an appropriate manner, by the reading of Washington's Farewell Address, by H. Robinson, Esq., and an address by Hon. W. Van Voorhis.

The address is said, by those who listened to it, to have been a very handsome, eloquent, and appropriate production, but I was my misfortune to be absent, owing to a misapprehension of the time when the exercises were to commence in the Assembly chamber. A fine liberty pole was erected the day previous, directly in front of the capitol, and from its top, at an early hour, floated the star-spangled banner of the Union.

The star-spangled banner, oh! long may it wave. Over the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

The exercises of the 22d inst. were closed by a splendid ball in the evening at the Assembly Hall, which was numerously attended. Yours, etc., SPECTATOR.

NATIONAL THEATRE.—Washington St. The performances at this theatre please us much. There is a truthfulness to nature about the acting of French people, and a fidelity to all the etiquette of the stage, which is in the highest degree agreeable. There are lessons of politeness to be learned from them, which might be advantageously applied in the drawing room. Every one must be pleased with the gentility of Mr. Pratt, and the good humor and natural manner of Delamare, the quaint grace of Madame Juliet, and the versatility and pleasant voice of Nitzel. Indeed, the accuracy and care of all, add to the sort of professional admiration, which renders French artists so pleasant, and make the National an agreeable place of resort. We understand that an English company will soon appear in a series of popular comedies, under the judicious management of Mr. Evard, from whose ability to cater for an American audience, we look for something excellent in this department.

MAP OF SAN FRANCISCO.—We have received from Wm. M. Eddy, Esq., City Engineer and Surveyor, a very beautiful and accurate map of this city, from his official surveys, made during the past year. It is invaluable to the counting room of every merchant or business man, and we hope Mr. Eddy will be adequately recompensed for this evidence of his public spirit. He will please accept our thanks.

POLICE.—The nine o'clock visitors to the Alcaide's court, pay very little attention to the adage "water your wine in moderation," as the following cases show: Philip Ares being drunk and disorderly, was fined $10. John Geniston thought he had a right to laugh and talk at the Olympic, as he paid $2 on purpose to have a little fun; but the Alcaide differed with him in opinion, and fined him $5 for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Mr. Benakin paid $5 for getting drunk. Numbers were allowed to depart, taking their dust with them, in consideration of its being their first appearance. Frederick Francis, on a charge of petty larceny, was remanded for the grand jury.

Hall alias Gray, a gentleman of color, brought up a second time within a week, owned up to three names as well as to the fact that it had been a matter of quite common occurrence for him to appear before magistrates when he lived not far from "Philadelfy." His Honor advised him to quit this "critter," plainly telling him that his next appearance there would send him to the chain gang for six months. Mr. Wm. Hall Gray bowed very politely and said, "I'll leave the digging, sir."

NOTICE.—We are authorized to announce L. A. Besancon, as a candidate for the office of County Clerk.

FOR COUNTY CLERK. T. S. Pomeroy, the present assistant Clerk of the District Court, is a candidate for County Clerk at the ensuing election.

Auction Sales.

Monday, February 25. 12 lots ground 20x55 on Price st. $51 each. 1 lot do. 20x55 on Douglas st. $38 a $40, each. 21 lots do. 20x55 on do. withdrawn. 1 lot do. 20x55, cor. Bryant and Price streets, $120. 6 lots do. 20x55 on Bryant st., $40 a $50, each. 2 lots do. 20x55, on Leavenworth st. $40, each. 7 water lots, withdrawn. 12 lots ground, on Vallejo st., withdrawn. Terms—cash.

MARRIED. At the New Catholic Church, in Vallejo street, by the Rev. Father Cople, first pastor of the Catholic Church of San Francisco, Michael Murray, Esq., of the Mission of San Jose, to Miss Amelia Nash, late of Parramatta, New South Wales.

MARINE NEWS.

Port of San Francisco.

CLEARED.

Saturday, February 23. Ship Bostonian, Gardner, Polynesian Islands. Chilian ship Ann McKim, Vanevelt, Valparaiso. Eng. ship Inchinla, Pearce, Auckland. Russian ship Shellfish, Klistrom, New Archangel. Bk Josephine, Haley, Monterey, 4 pass. Sch San Juan, Monterey, 2 pass. Chilian bark Dolores, Hanson, Icalesjo. Hamburg bark Independence, Schacht, San Blas. Chilian brig Castor, L'Abbe, Valparaiso. English brig David Majcomb, Smyth, Sandwich Islands.

ARRIVED.

Monday, February 25. Ship Charleston, Ferguson, 50 ds fm Panama, with mader for Smith & Lewis. 280 pass—3 died on the passage. Bk Southern, Clark, from Buenos Ayres, and 65 ds fm Valparaiso to W. F. Clark. Chilian brig Lola, Schroder, 52 ds fm Valparaiso, mader to ord. Bk Pease, 50 ds fm Pease Sound, with 67,000 feet lumber to Sayer & Wells. Pass. Lieut. Talmadge, Left bark Victory, from Sandwich Islands, to load lumber, for this port, in a few days.

EAD THIS. The person who left at this office, on the 20th inst., a bundle of maps of the bay of San Francisco and the Gold Regions, can have the same by applying at the desk of the office. Lxxx c

JUST received per steamer Oregon, one of the best and most complete patents, warranted to be the best article now in use, and for sale at a low price for cash. The patentee, Mr. Johnson, will attend to putting it in motion.

Also, the machinery, complete, for a saw mill, to arrive. Further particulars apply to C. C. Richmond & Co., Jackson street, below Montgomery, opposite Canton Hotel. Lxxx c

RECEIVED. 75 bbls Roman Cement, just received and for sale by William Pickens, mercantile Broker and Real Estate Agent, corner Jackson and Montgomery sts. Lxxx c

STEAMER Transportation to Sacramento to City. Notice to Shippers. The subscribers give notice that the propeller McKim will leave the store ship Florence, for Sacramento city, every Saturday afternoon, at 4 o'clock.

We will receive goods in charge on any day for shipment, and hold them free of expense, and put them on board the steamer without charge. They should be delivered at some place easy of access by lighters, or at our stores on Clay street wharf and foot of Sacramento st.

Goods should be distinctly marked, with full name if possible, to prevent the errors occasioned by the same name to different consignees. The names of consignees should always be sent with the goods with a statement of packages and marks.

Bills of lading or receipts should always be in general form, and be filled by the shipper, and in all cases by 12 o'clock of the day of sailing.

An observance of the above directions is very important to prevent mistakes which are liable to occur if neglected.

ON SALES:

WOOD, Auctioneer.
And Three Horses as well as a Sharrow will sell
Fri. 26, at 11 o'clock.
No. 247 Montgomery
with cars. No complications. Each, one new and one old. Extra—can be combined into one.
No. 247 Montgomery, with doors,
etc. complete. 26, 25, 25,
etc. extra, extra, etc.

WOOD, Auctioneer.
No. 247 Potomac. 40—
will sell this day, at
11, at 11, at 11, at 11, at 11,
No. 247 Montgomery street,
Baltimore, just arrived.

For sweet potatoes and sugar beets
Extra
No. 247 Montgomery street,
Baltimore, just arrived.

WOOD, Auctioneer.
No. 247 Potomac. 40—
will sell this day, at
11, at 11, at 11, at 11, at 11,
No. 247 Montgomery street,
Baltimore, just arrived.

[illegible]

MAY, or after she has of the Robert Paulding, An containing part of the ad-able goods—
—Cane, straw, prime mus-
a rousy and extra shawls, dried, Chili beans, dried apples,
and other selected Liverpool pilots, hard, sperm con-

[illegible]

mented, both acute and obtuse, the latter with a small, sharp, black point. The dimensions—25-30, 15-20, 10-12 feet post: 20-25, 10-12 post: 10-12
 1-2 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 2-3 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 4-5 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 6-7 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 8-9 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 10-11 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 12-13 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 14-15 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 16-17 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 18-19 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 20-21 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 22-23 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 24-25 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 26-27 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 28-29 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 30-31 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 32-33 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 34-35 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 36-37 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 38-39 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 40-41 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 42-43 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 44-45 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 46-47 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 48-49 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 50-51 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 52-53 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 54-55 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 56-57 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 58-59 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 60-61 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 62-63 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 64-65 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 66-67 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 68-69 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 70-71 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 72-73 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 74-75 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 76-77 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 78-79 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 80-81 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 82-83 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 84-85 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 86-87 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 88-89 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 90-91 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 92-93 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 94-95 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 96-97 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 98-99 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 100-101 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 102-103 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 104-105 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 106-107 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 108-109 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 110-111 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 112-113 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 114-115 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 116-117 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 118-119 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 120-121 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 122-123 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 124-125 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 126-127 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 128-129 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 130-131 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 132-133 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 134-135 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 136-137 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 138-139 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 140-141 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 142-143 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 144-145 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 146-147 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 148-149 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 150-151 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 152-153 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 154-155 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 156-157 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 158-159 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 160-161 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 162-163 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 164-165 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 166-167 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 168-169 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 170-171 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 172-173 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 174-175 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 176-177 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 178-179 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 180-181 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 182-183 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 184-185 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 186-187 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 188-189 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 190-191 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 192-193 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 194-195 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 196-197 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 198-199 post: 10-12, 10-12, 10-12, 10-12
 200-201 post: 10-12, 10-12,

ived at the usual rates. Lighters recharge on the platform, thereby the expense of cartage. No wharf-aged upon goods landed for storage.

